The Kansas Board of Barbering (KBOB) serves to protect the health and welfare of citizens frequenting barbering businesses in the state of Kansas through the enforcement of existing barber statutes and sanitary regulations established for the barbering profession. KBOB administers and oversees all licensing tests in Kansas to ensure that all citizens practicing barbering are qualified and well-trained. The agency also conducts regular inspections on barbering businesses across the state to ensure all shops and barber colleges are properly licensed for operation and are adhering to and maintaining the sanitation standards set by the State.
